JAZZ FESTIVAL HISTORY

It was winter of 2010. Emilio Correa Arce, the developer of the exclusive Villas Wayak beachfront complex, and his cousin Israel Correa Peniche, two socially responsible young men, wanted to reach out to the international snowbird community and do some community service at the same time. Ideas were tossed around and together with real estate pioneer Mitchell Keenan, the idea of a jazz festival with the money raised going towards local children was created.

Israel called Judy Abbott and Susan Stewart, coordinators of Telchac Education, to see if they could work together. The answer was a quick "yes." In six weeks the first Full Moon Jazz Festival was put together and held on a freezing cold night under an incredibly bright February full moon. When we say "freezing cold night", we are using Yucatecan standards. The locals came wrapped up in stadium blankets, coats and ski caps. The snowbirds arrived in shorts, short-sleeved shirts and sundresses. Everyone danced to the fabulous music of the Merida Big Band, funds were raised to directly support 13 students in Telchac Education and a yearly tradition was born.

Five years later the Full Moon Jazz Festival has become the social musical event of the winter that both locals and snowbirds look forward to. Some 100 families in Telchac Puerto also look forward to it as it has become an event of vital importance to their well being thanks to the sponsors and patrons who give so generously to help these families during the school year.

Many of the turquoise t-shirted volunteers are high school and college students from Telchac Education who have come to help make the festival a success. They are giving back.

Presently the Full Moon Jazz Festival is directly supporting 26 students in Telchac Education, including paying college tuition for three college students. And, the donation from our Anonymous Canadian donor has helped 27 children learn to read just the first semester of this school year.

Thank you for your support and mark your calendars for the February 2015 full moon!

TELCHAC EDUCATION

TELCHAC EDUCATION®

Apoyando la Educación por un mejor mañana

Founded in 2009, Telchac Educaion was conceived with the idea of helping finance the education of poor but deserving students in the fishing port of Telchac Puerto. The goal the first year was to sponsor 15 students. Sponsors came from the snowbird community that visits our coast from North of the Border each winter. Our goal was met AND surpassed the first year when we were able to accept 30 students.

In 2010 the first Full Moon Jazz Festival was held and with the funds raised we were able to accept another 13 students.

For this school year 2013 – 2014 we are helping 72 students between 2 grade and 3rd year of university with the “things” they need to study – school and gym uniforms, shoes, socks, backpacks, hoodies, books for Christmas gifts.

With the funds raised last year at the Full Moon Jazz Festival, we are also paying tuition for three young ladies in University.

To sponsor a student:

$145 US Grade school • $145 US Jr. high school • $225 US Sr. high school

$225 US College - to sponsor the “things” • $1,200 US College (to pay one year tuition)

In July 2013 with funds donated by an Anonymous Canadian donor we started a new program for 1st, 2nd and 3rd graders who didn't know how to read. This program, Yo Puedo Leer / I Can Read presently has 27 students who all now know how to read! We have two paid teachers and three teacher aids who are high school students in Telchac Education.

In February we will start a new group of 4th, 5th and 6th graders who can't read. We hope to report next year at this event that all these students are reading. Thank you Anonymous Canadian donor!!!
